

Special Reality
Malcolm Lowry's 'Last Notebook'

Riverside Hotel / Embalmers Family large pulled house of prevailing slave (ray stone wall
 only flowers
 4 television aerials
 9 Wm's coat you'll collect rest
 Small as I recall
 While Mr J wood pick up Dandruff -
 Polishing paravolito
 A Hatching Curry 4 P Passengers - 'born for more intricate' Drew up as A x we arrived beer NN usual drink take just one rich labourer Area tree - Then, in the Mr's with the beautiful view ...

33 - a day in 2 days = 99/- = 105/-
 5:50

NOTES re General Kincannon
 June 1, 1957 - Saturday Left Newcastle about 10 am, travelled on 4 trains & 2 buses & arrived Glasgow - via Kerwick! - at circa 8:30 pm.
 Almost missed train in Carlisle: - the beautiful little town Newcastle to Carlisle, best country and journey, hell Sunday, June 2nd: Much mist, lake with much mist rising from it like steam from Cauldon: Col. promised to be fine but. We walked along edge of Glasgow, to to bydale